Liz Smith

LET ME tell you about an underground rave going on for Lee Newman's CD called "Happy Together." Deejays like Gary Owens, Wink Martindale, Chuck Southcott are turning this songbook of the '60s into a big hit. Mr. Newman has the genes for fame. His great-grandfathers included Jimmy McHugh the songwriter and yesteryear's famous Ziegfeld comic Eddie Cantor.

Lee has also uncovered an unknown demo made by John Lennon of the classic Beatles song "Help."

This has never been released, and it is said that Lennon loved this version. I'm hoping Lee is in touch with Yoko Ono; it would be great to hear this rarity.
